The readers of this paper will be pleased to n an that there is at least one dreaded disease that clence has been able to cure in all its stages, and tbut is Cutarrh. Hali's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and inucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroving the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of tes-

Our Mr. Hechinger has gone East. His parting injunction to us was, "As long as the weather remains cold force the sale of heavy weight suits and overcoats. No matter how high the quality make prices low enough to sell them, but be sure and sell at these prices for CASH ONLY. It will help to pay for our spring goods that are coming in." The "Old Man's" orders will be obeyed.

See the suits and overcoats we are now selling at $10, $12 and $15.

On our Children's and Boys' suits and overcoats we have nearly cut the price in two.

"A brake is a very useful article; in fact, it is a necessity. The giant locomotive with its enty or hundred freight cars sliding over the glistening rails at a great speed, suddenly the hrave engineer discovers danger ahead and whistles 'down brakes?' and every brakeman rushes to his post and with heroic efforts succeeds in stopping the train as the engine stands on the edge of danger and disaster. We are traveling on the rail of life, and every human engine needs to apply the hrakes to avold disaster. We are rushing at pell-mell speed over the rails, oblivious to danger, stretching every nerve, reaching forth every power within ns to achieve the tinsel toys of this life. It is well in this strenuous age for men to apply the brakes-pause, consider meditate. A young man once wrote a friend, 'I guess I have struck the toboggan slide.' Eack came the answer, 'In the name of Jesus Christ, put on the hrnkes!

Men, you are huilt for high things; not for mud and muck and mire. God has given you the power to make the very best of the stuff that is in you. Are you doing it? If not, I wish that we might notice a few of the brakes that might be applied to your life's race in order to make it a success for time and eternity. There is first of all the

THE BRAKE OF SINCERITY.

"What J. B. Gough wrote across the face of a young lady's autograph alhum, you will used to write across the face of your life-Be Sham hattles dou't kill; sham characters don't count. Choap prints fade; cheap colors run. Fiat money doesn't go with men; flat manhood does not go with God. The ring of metal tells the counterfeit; so the ring of the man. Shoddy clothes bag at the knees. Too many characters, like too many buildings, are 'Queen Ann' in front and 'Mary Anu' behind. Be sincere. Be genulne. Be yourself. Don't try to fool people. You can only best policy, but the best principle. 'Oh, God, meed to pray that prayer often.

BRAKE OF CONVICTIONS.

"Believe something; know something; know what you believe. Tho creedless man is a dangerous man. Don't be a jelly fish. Have omplexions the 'dough face' is the worst. The | meant for a throne. Get it.

the world than any other people. There are more 'Me too's' people who don't stand for anything. Ciphers. Don't be a thing. Bo a man. BRAKE OF SELF-MASTERY.

"Self-mastery, self-denial, submission are words in the vocabulary of Kings. In ourselves is victory or defeat. No man is such a conqueror as the man who has defeated self.

A little hoy made a great discovery one day. He went to his mother with delight and said: 'Mnmma, I don't have to cry when I fall down. I can make myself stop. I say stop that, and found the secret of self-mastery. Make yourself mind yourself. 'Whoever overcomes himself treads the world under foot."

BRAKE OF DETERMINATION.

"No will, no way. Takes a will to make a way. Of the four-fourths of any life will is a hig quarter. The decisive factor of life is in our own will. 'I will' lifts men above the nniverse; it hinds man to God. Like a postage stnmp, a man's value depends on his ability to stick to a thing. Some one says that General Grant was defeated five times, but didn't have sense enough to know it. Ilave that kind of

BRAKE OF COURAGE.

"Here is where meu fail. Lack of courage, lack of success. Cowards are traiters to convictions. Courage is the Godlike in man. Courage is the word. A hrave man! He can do most anything. He can do more good under the banner of Christ than nnywhere else. Men. you pride yourselves on heing brave; which side are you on? I heard of an old veteran of Gettysburg who took his nephew to see the cyclorama of that hattie. As the boy was looking on the scene he said, 'l'ncle, where were you in the battle?' 'Now, right over there was one of the fiercest engagements.' 'But,' said the nephew, 'I would enjoy it so much hetter if I just knew where you were.' The old uncle said, 'Right over there one Captain had the third horse shot under him.' 'Yes, uncle, but where are you in the picture?' His old nacle replied, 'Nephew, can't you hush? 1-1 was back of that troe over in the rear end of that cornfield.' When the cyclorama of the universe is shown up there are many that won't

PUT FIRST THING FIRST.

"Don't mix values. Don't mistake dollars tool one person, yourself. Honesty is not the for deeds, nor wealth for worth, nor money for manhood. What a man is, not what a man make me real, prayed a young man. You will has, is the great question. Better be rich in God than to be rich in gold. Don't get it into your head that the great thing is to wear a diamond; the great thing is to he a diamond. There are two great words, being and dolng, hut the greater of these is being. 'Be.' You have your choice. Don't lose yours. Don't let onvictions. Stand for something. Of all the stars drop from your crown. You are

AFTER all the "fuss and feathers" over the Beef Trust, the Government officials have made an exhaustive report, a summary of which is printed elsewhere in this impression of The LEDGER. From this it appears that the cattleraisers—the farmers if you please—were largely responsible for the recent high prices of beef to the consumers. They seem to have gotten the lion's share of the advance, and it is now in order for the rich consumer working for $1 a day to call the poor appressed cattle-raiser to account.

But, read the report and judge for yourself.

Officers from Breathitt county went to Winchester by order of Judge Riddell to secure Mose Feltner and Sam Fields, who are wanted in Breathitt, the former on the charge of murder and the latter as a witness in the case. They are in Jail at Winchester, in default of bail, to answer at the April term of the Clark Circuit Court under charges of contempt. Acting under instructions of Circuit Judge Benton the Jailer denied Judge RIDDELL's order. And now there's a row about "jurisdiction" between Breathitt and Clark counties.

THE Goody-Goods are making much ado over the big religious awakening in Louisville, claiming that 40,000 persons attended the meetings daily and that there were over 4,000 "conversions." Now. to say nothing of the 40,000 daily attendants, the 4,000 converts can work a complete revolution in the political and social morals of that city if they are carnest. The character of the next municipal administration in that crime-ridden but beautiful metropolis will show just how much real good the great revival has accomplished.

Who Got the Benefit?

Looks Like the Cattle-Raisers Got More Than the Beef Trust

President Roosovelt bas transmitted to Congress the report of Commissioner of Corporations Garfield upon the beef industry, in sub-

That six packing companies -- Armour & Company, Swift & Company, Morris & Company, the National Packing Company, the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Company and the Cudahy Several days ago Miss May McElfresh, who Packing Company-frequently designated in left her home in Maysville five years ago, asked the trade as "The Big Six," slaughtered in the year 1903, 5,521,697 head of cattle out of a several years ago. A brief Item telling of the total indicated slaughter in the United States

> That the true average net profit for three companies -- the Armour, Swift and Schwnrzschild & Sulzherger - for the twelve months ending June 30th, 1903, as shown by their actual bookkeeping records, was 99 cents per head, not including incidental profits mentioned be-

That the year 1902, instead of being one of exorbitant profits, as has been commonly supposed, was less profitable than usual. The report says, in fact, that during the months when prices of heef were the highest, some, at least, of the leading packors were actually losing the supply. The number of cattle killed in money on every head of cattle slaughtered.

and the price of beef during the year 1903, Instead of being unusually high, as popularly supposed, was for each half of that year lower than the margin for any corresponding half year since 1898 and that the increase in the margin for the second balf of 1903 over the the case of Swlft & Company during the three first half was no greater than the similar change in other years. An average margin no caso exceeded 25 of the total sales. In the covering total killings of cattle by most of the packing houses in five leading Western markets the net profit was 1.8% of the total sales, in and sales of beef at 24 cities baving a total 1902 it was 2.3%. population of about 10,000,000 persons was $2.81 per hundred weight for January to June, 1902; $2.83 for July to December, 1902; $2.14 for January to June, 1903; $2.41 for the second half of 1903 and $2.33 for the first half

That conditions in 1902 were nbnormal and that cattle prices for 1903 and 1904 cannot fairly be compared with that year. The great prosperity of the country from 1899 to 1902 apparently led to a considerable increase in the cattle. per capita consumption of beef. The practical failure of the corn crop of 1901 indoced many cattle feeders to send their stock to market in poor condition, thus reducing the average weight per head and the average percentage of dressed beef to live weight. As a result, while the total number of cattle slaughtered at five leading Western packing centers during the first half of 1902 decreased only about 1.1% as compared with the first half of 1901 the total live weight of the cattle slaughtered is computed to have decreased 437 and the computed dressed weight decreased considerably nore. In this connection the report says

"In the face of the strong demand, the price of cattle was forced to the highest level ever known. The high prices of beef, which caused so much complaint among consumers at this time, were attributable wholly to these abnor-

That in 1902 the price of cattle fell very sharply, chiefly because of a large increase in five leading Western markets during the first That the changes in the margin between the half of 1903 was more than 15% greater than prices of cattle and the prices of beef are in during the first half of 1902 and on account of the increased size of cattle the quantity of beef produced increased 223.

In the second half of 1903 the quantity of beef derived from cattle killed at the same market was about 10% grenter than in the cor- ibon't fail to see them. responding period of 1902. I'nder these conditions the price of beef, instead of remaining at the high level of 1902, fell during 1903 by a larger absolute amount and by about the That the margin between the price of wattle same percentage as the price of cattle.

That the six leading packing companies es- styles. pecially discussed are apparently not over cap-

That the percentage of profit on the gross volume of business is comparatively small. In years 1902, 1903 and 1904, the profits have in case of the Cudahy Packing Comyany for 1904

That the profit of private car lines in the packing industry on mileage is a very liberal one, approximate computations indicating a net return of from 14% to about 17%. Reckoning on the basis of dressed beef transported, however, this profit would add but little to the cost of such beef to the consumer, the net profit from the mileage of private cars being computed at not more than 4 cents per hundred pounds of beef or say 25 cents per head of

The six principal concerns slaughter nearly 98% of all the cattle killed in the eight leading Western packing centers, namely, Chicago, Kansas City, South Omaha, East St. Louis, South St. Joseph, Fort Worth, Souix City and South St. Paul. They control a very large percentage of the trade in beef in many large cities, particularly in the East. In New York they furnish about 735; in Boston more than 85%; in Philadelphia about 60%; in Pittsburgh more than 60%. Such cities as In-lianapolis, Cleveland and Buffalo obtain only from 10 to 3315 of their total beef supply from these six companies. In the Southern States the large packers mentioned generally supply less than half the total beef consumed.
